

Monthly Personal Budget

Expenses

Based upon adults and children in my family living with me, my household's average monthly expenses currently are:

Item	Cost
Rent/mortgage (property tax)
Utilities (heat, water, electricity, cable TV, Internet)
Phone
Food (groceries and dining out)
Household and personal care supplies
Childcare (daycare, babysitting)
Prescriptions and medical costs
Clothing
Transportation (car insurance, fuel, bus pass)
Miscellaneous costs
Money sent back home for family support
Money sent back home for debt repayment
Home and life insurance
Credit card payments (ONLY if you do not pay balance in full every month)
Loan payments (car, furniture, student loan, etc.)
Investments (RRSPs, RESPs, etc.)
Other (please specify):
<input type="text"/>
Total

Income

My household's current gross and net monthly income, on average. Note: this should include all sources of income from the working members of your household.

Source of Income	Gross Income (before deductions)	Net Income (after all deductions)
My full-time employment working as a: <input type="text"/>
My part-time/occasional employment working as a: <input type="text"/>
Student Finance Loan or grant (average monthly allowance)
My business income (if any)
My partner's employment working as a: <input type="text"/>
Other household members' employment
Income Support (social assistance)
Child Tax Benefit and Universal Child Care Benefit
Employment Insurance (EI)
Workers' Compensation Benefit (WCB)
Other (please specify): <input type="text"/>
Total		